TODAY'S FASHIONS

Lisa Hunt and Elaine Garcia are keeping warm with their cowl neck sweaters.

"Walk right this way" says Marina Hall modeling her rugby shirt, painter pants and saddle oxfords.

During the year 1977–78 many fashions swept through the country. Davis High picked up on them, and here are a few to mention:

over-alls
gauchos
boots
painters pants
rugby shirts
cowl neck sweaters
rabbit fur coats
jogging suits
gold and silver jackets
suspenders
stick pins
mid-length coats
goose down vests
Dorothy Hamill hair cut
Farah Fawcett Majors hair cut Vinnie Barbarino hair cut
CB radios

TODAY'S FASHIONS

"Going my way?" CiCi Mitchell in her gold lurex pull-over.

Boots were the "in" thing. Worn with jeans, gauchos, and in this case, overalls.

Marsha Fox, Judy Chambless and Linda McFarland modeling their fashionable over-alls.

1978 was a very fashionable year for the DHS students. As you can tell, we were quite up to date with the fashions. We will always remember the days of "boots, gauchos, over-alls and CB's as the good ol days.

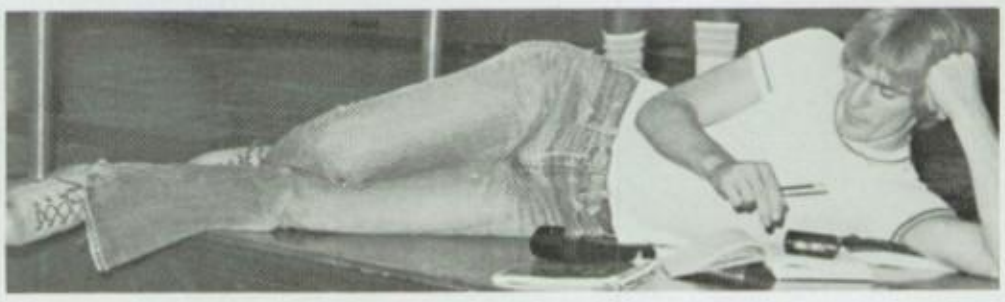
THE WAY WE WERE . . .



As this school year ends, we, the Wolf Pack Staff hope we have recorded 1978 accurately. There are many memories in this annual, some good, some bad, but all interlock like little pieces of a puzzle, to form "THE WAY WE WERE"

Our special thanks goes to Pat Norrell and Bo Meador for furnishing our pictures.
